

9. Coolum's Heart

9.3 Art Projects and Ephemeral Events

Create site specific seating

Mural on the Civic Centre Building

Storytelling audio columns along the pathway -- press button to hear local history stories.

Outdoor theatre/movies using the walls of the Cultural Center

Community Garden development -- seasonal festivals establishing art projects into the community sustainability project.

Markets -- Activate the peripheral edges of the public park with temporary market stall layout to create a casual piazza.

Outdoor Library Book reading groups -- story telling circles

Pam's Walpole's Postcard -- illustrates the possible ephemeral events

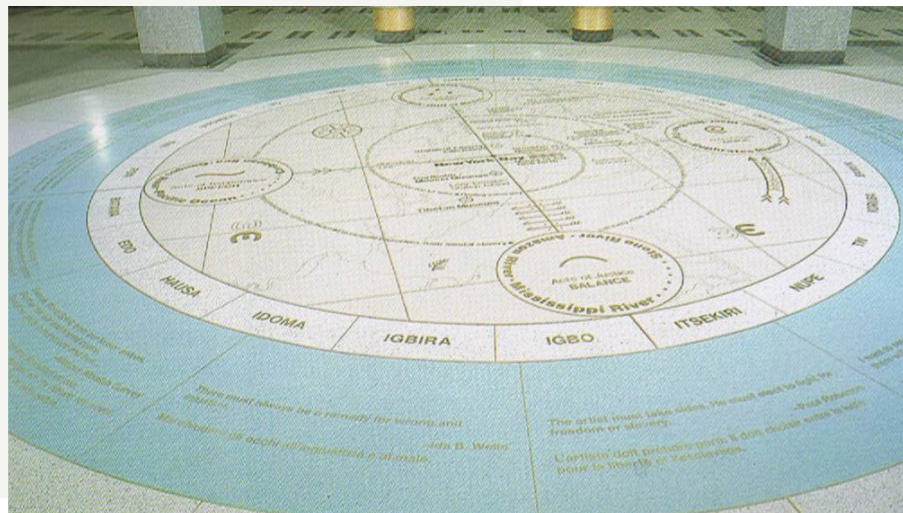

Image - Pam Walpole

Jack Morgan Park - The Cultural and Civic Heart of Coolum

Ned Kahn, 1995 Encircled Stream - work suggesting the history of the flood cycles. (Fleming 2007)

Houston Conwill, 1991 The New Ring Shout Historical Cosmogram linking past, present and future. (Fleming 2007)

Bora Rings

Key metaphor for Conceptual Art Framework is the parallel with traditional and current place based ceremonies and festivals and the importance of connective paths that nourish our senses and enjoy a meaningful purpose linking important places.

Central Public Place

Art and design connected with the Heart of Coolum at Jack Morgan Park.

T. Schoonhoven, 1998 The Poets Table - mural depicting elements from the local beach history. (Fleming 2007)